FOG DESIGN + ART ANNOUNCES LARGEST PRESENTATION OF FAIR TO DATE

Fair Brings Together More than 75 Exhibitors and Extends FOCUS Section, FOG Talks Expand to Cowell Theater, and Kaitlyn & Mike Krieger and Jennifer & Joe Montana Named as Honorary Chairs

San Francisco, CA (Thursday, October 15, 2026) – FOG Design+Art today announced its most substantial presentation to date, bringing together more than 75 leading international art and design galleries for the 13th edition of the fair. Taking place at Fort Mason Center for Arts & Culture in San Francisco from January 21–24, 2027, FOG Design+Art will convene 50 prominent exhibitors from around the globe in the FOG Pavilion, while FOG FOCUS broadens its scope to encompass 26 curated presentations across its dedicated venue, extending onto the second story for the first time.

The 2027 fair will launch with a Preview Gala on Wednesday, January 20, benefitting the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art (SFMOMA). Kaitlyn and Mike Krieger and Jennifer and Joe Montana, notable members of the Bay Area community with deep dedication to the arts, have been selected as this year's honorary chairs.

"FOG has always grown alongside the community that shaped it, and this year you can see that growth in the fair itself," said Sydney Blumenkranz, Director of FOG Design+Art. "After receiving more applications than ever before, expanding to the second floor of FOG FOCUS felt like a natural next step. 2027 is our strongest edition to date, and a true celebration of the creative energy that makes San Francisco such a vital home for art and design."

The expansion to the upper level marks an exciting new chapter for FOG, allowing the fair to extend its footprint, and create a destination for visitors, including a lounge and full-service dining experience by A16. This year FOG FOCUS is broadening its purview to include a wide range of galleries presenting artists at all stages of their careers including several nonprofit galleries made possible with support from Bloomberg.

Following another year of standing-room only conversations, the FOG Talks, presented by Bank of America, is moving to the state-of-the-art Cowell Theater, located within FOG FOCUS, providing an elevated setting for insightful dialogues addressing contemporary art, architecture, technology, and design. The FOG Talks series is organized by FOG Steering Committee member Susan Swig.

This year's fair brings together a mix of international, national, and local dealers, with galleries attending from Mexico City, Hong Kong, Paris, Seoul, Bologna, London, Glasgow, Tokyo, New York, Los Angeles, Zurich, Basel, St. Moritz, Monaco, Shanghai, São Paulo, Kyoto, Brussels, and Berlin, among others. FOG is also pleased to welcome 15 galleries presenting for the first time: ATLA, DEN, Dominique Porter Gallery, Fair Warning, Hoffman Donahue, GALERIE 1900-2000, LAMB, Mariposa, Matthew Brown, Moderne Gallery, Parker Gallery, P.P.O.W, Taka Ishii Gallery, Thomas Dane Gallery, and VeneKlasen.
